NOVEMBER ELECTIONS

Five States Elect Governors and Others State Officers.

BIG CLAIMS MADE.

Both Democrats and Republicans Assert They Will Be Successful in Ohio and Kentucky—Trouble Threatened in Kentucky.

Washington, Nov. 6.—Elections will be held in 12 states tomorrow. Ohio, Iowa, Kentucky, Mississippi, Maryland and Massachusetts will elect governors and other state officers; Nebraska, judge of the supreme court and two regents of the state university; Pennsylvania, treasurer and judge of the supreme and superior court; South Dakota, three justices of the supreme court, and New York, New Jersey and Virginia legislators. There are five tickets in Ohio, five in Iowa, six in Kentucky, two in Mississippi, three in Nebraska, two in South Dakota, three in Maryland, five in Pennsylvania and five in Massachusetts. In Kansas and Colorado, county officers are to be elected and municipal elections are to be held at San Francisco, Salt Lake, New Orleans and Detroit. In addition to a sheriff and some judicial officers in Greater New York, mayoralty elections will be held in some other cities of New York state.

Kentucky.

Louisville, Nov. 6.—The campaign which closed tonight has been one of the most exciting ever known in this state. It has been bitterly personal and has aroused intense feeling. While an outbreak of violence tomorrow would surprise no one, the likelihood of such occurrence is further off than two days ago. Mayor Weaver has issued a proclamation urging every effort to secure a quiet and orderly election. The police are ready for any emergency and the state militia are in readiness for a call in case their services are needed. These precautionary measures, it is thought, will insure order.

Most of the party leaders of the state are here. The campaign closed tonight with large meetings of both parties. William Goebel and Ex-Senator Blackburn addressed their followers while Governor Bradley, W. S. Taylor and other candidates on the state ticket made their last appeal to Republican voters.

Ohio.

Cincinnati, Nov. 6.—Arguments in the exciting Ohio campaign closed today, and the last touches put to the work of getting out a full vote.

Happily the indications are now for good weather and for a vote next in volume to that of a presidential election. The election of decennial appraisers of real estate for the next ten years is relied on to bring out all the farmers of the state.

Aside from the estimate by ex-Gov. Campbell there has been no definite claim made of the vote for McLean. Campbell says McLean's plurality will be 40,000, if the Democrats keep united. There has been a Democratic muddle at Cleveland growing out of the divided condition of the Republicans in that city, and in Cincinnati the Republican party is much more concerned about the success of their county ticket than their state ticket. These influences may offset each other by reducing Nash's vote in Cincinnati as much as it reduces McLean's vote in Cleveland. But in both cases there is a strong probability that Jones will be beneficiary of this disaffection and trading.

Nebraska.

Lincoln, Nov. 6.—There was a general closing up of campaign headquarters today to permit the officers and clerks living out of town to go home to vote. Based on the registration figures in the cities and large towns the vote, with good weather, will equal if not exceed that of a year ago. Under the new law, voters in order to participate in next year's primaries must give political affiliations when they register and the result is gratifying to Republican managers, the fusionists declare it means nothing. Colonel Bryan will make the final address of the campaign tonight at Omaha and return to Lincoln tomorrow to cast his ballot.

Massachusetts.

Boston, Nov. 6.—The closing of the campaign in Massachusetts was unattended by anything like excitement. The election of the Republican candidate for governor, W. Murray Crane, and the remainder of the state ticket, is regarded as certain. Robert Treat Payne, the Democratic nominee for governor, and other Democratic campaigners held final rallies tonight. The Democratic state committee claim that if the antiexpansion element of the Republican party either refrain from voting or cast ballots for Payne, the Republican plurality will be at least 80,000 less than last year. The Republican state committee do not concede a reduction of more than 10,000.

Maryland.

Baltimore, Nov. 6.—The leaders of both parties are apparently calm and confident and are making rather an extravagant claim as to the result. Chairman Vandiver of the Democratic state central committee, says his party will carry 20 of the 23 counties in the state, while General Shryock, who is at the head of the Republican state central committee, insists the Democratic candidate will carry Worcester county in which he lives, and no other. More conservative elements concede the eastern shore to the Democrats by 1200, southern Maryland to the Republicans by 1000 and Western Maryland to Republicans by about the same plurality. Leaving the city of Baltimore with 11,000 voters debatable ground.

Iowa.

Des Moines, Nov. 6.—The ticket to be elected here is governor, treasurer, state superintendent of public schools and railroad commissioner. Upon the legislature hangs the selection of a United States senator. Managers of the Republican campaign are confident that Iowa will go Republican. It is asserted that even Democrats have privately conceded it.

Pennsylvania.

Philadelphia, Nov. 6.—The leaders of both parties have little hope of getting out a large vote. Republicans confidently claim upwards of 150,000 plurality for their candidate. The Democratic state leaders claim they will win if their efforts to prevent fraudulent voting in Philadelphia are successful.

Virginia.

Richmond, Nov. 7.—Present indications are that an unusually light vote will be polled.

The legislature, which is to be elected will select the successor of United States Senator Martin and this is practically the only issue.

ENCOURAGING NEWS.

General White Holding His Own at Ladysmith Against the Boers.

London, Nov. 6.—An immense weight has been lifted from the public mind by a brief official dispatch by which continental stories of disaster at Ladysmith proved to be false, although the dispatch itself revived anxiety in another direction, as it indicated that General White instead of sitting tight and acting wholly on the defensive, as it is held in many quarters he ought to do, persists in making sorties and risking another Nicholson's Nek disaster.

Generally, however, the cheery tone of the dispatch showing there was no anxiety at Ladysmith as regards the ability of the beleaguered garrison to hold its own, had excellent effect on the country. From the fact that General White is able to take the offensive and shell the Boer camp, it seems that Ladysmith is not so closely besieged as was supposed. Not much importance, however, is attached to the shelling of the Boer laager, as the war office has no confirmation of the story, or that the Orange Free Staters' camp at Besters had been captured. Were this true, it might have considerable effect on the future attitude of the Orange Free State which is not so directly concerned in the conflict as The Transvaal.

The movement of the Boers into Cape Colony is beginning to awaken a British fear that they greatly underestimated the forces they have to meet and even General Buller's task may not be so easy as anticipated. It is becoming apparent that all British calculations, based on the loyalty of the population, is hopelessly at sea, or there has been a serious leakage of Dutch sympathizers from Natal and Cape Colony. Other wise there is no accounting for the large forces of burghers reported from all directions. The war office is consequently being urged to have more troops in readiness for all possible demands. The evacuation of Colenso and reported withdrawal of the British forces from Stromberg is still unexplained.

NO RIGHT TO ISSUE.

Boer Government Cannot Issue Letters of Marque to Privateers.

Washington, Nov. 6.—It is doubted here whether the Boer government could issue letters of marque to privateers that would give the vessels carrying them the right to be treated otherwise than as pirates. In the first place, the Boers having accepted the suzerainty of Great Britain by the treaty of 1881, the international status of the Boer flag is very doubtful. Assuming, however, that if the flag of The Transvaal would be recognized on the high seas, there are serious practical difficulties in the way of the issuance of letters of mark by a government that Inexhaustible Cement Supply.

It is stated that the deposit of Portland cement discovered near Owen Sound, Ontario, and the manufacture of which was begun in 1889, is proving practically inexhaustible, and the daily capacity of the factory will soon be increased to 300 barrels. The prevailing price is $2-10 per barrel of 350 pounds net. The product is claimed to be fully equal to the English, German or Belgian article, and it is said, will eventually take the place of importations to Canada, at least.—Philadelphia Record.

DEFAUDING REVENUE.

Cancelled Stamps Recaptured and Sold to Parties in New York.

New York, Nov. 6.—Frank G. Thompson, chief of the internal revenue bureau in this city, declared that at least 10 per cent of the revenue stamps used daily in the Wall street district, having already been cancelled, were fraudulent.

Chief Thompson said this when asked about the arrest by him in Newark on Saturday of Caleb L. Crockett and C. J. Lee on a charge of restoring cancelled revenue stamps and selling them for use a second time. Mr. Thompson's jurisdiction extends to northern New Jersey and he said that for two months he had been watching Crockett.

It is estimated by Chief Thompson that the government is defrauded out of at least $3000 a day by the use of second hand stamps in the section of the city south of Fulton street. He says that revenue stamps worth about $50,000 are daily required in the transaction of that district, and that 10 per cent of this total is represented in restored stamps. "Crockett," Chief Thompson said, "was manager of a large establishment in Newark, and his position was important and lucrative. He has been engaged in washing stamps for a long time. I have been watching him for two or three months. This is the first case of this kind we have run down in New Jersey."

"I learned that Crockett had engaged a room in the Palace hotel, Newark, and with several of my men, I engaged the adjoining room. Lee was there and Crockett came in about 8 o'clock. We let them go ahead for a little while, and then we entered. I caught them at work with a lot of stamps and a bottle of the acid used for this purpose was found on the table."

Chief Thompson said stamps taken averaged a higher denomination than he had previously seized.

Messenger boys, Mr. Thompson said, are engaged to a large extent by the stamp swindlers in carrying on their work. He told of finding ten $50 bills on a messenger boy he recently called to his office.

"I will venture to assert," he said, "that I can go through New York and take into custody the first 50 messenger boys indiscriminately and by searching these 50 boys find at least 20 with washed or restored revenue stamps. Some houses allow messenger boys and clerks to affix and cancel stamps, and even if the boys receive good stamps they often substitute washed stamps and sell the good ones at a discount."

"Whenever anyone offers stamps for sale at a greater discount than 1 per cent for $100 worth, the person offering them and the stamps themselves should be looked upon with suspicion. The greatest discount any one can give is 1 per cent on $100 worth, which is the most the government allows."

Chief Thompson said that although the denominations of revenue stamps varies from 1 cent to $1000 he has never discovered any greater than $50 being discounted. He said that stamps of the denominations of $1, $3, $5 and $10 were most offered and that $1 stamps were used with greater frequency by swindlers.

For this crime the penalty provided in the Federal statutes of five years in prison and a fine of $1000. Mr. Thompson said he had $25,000 in cancelled stamps in his safe.

Train Wreckers at Work.

Flaton, Tex., Nov. 6.—A westbound freight train on the Southern Pacific, running 15 minutes ahead of the passenger, was wrecked 14 mile from Flaton by an obstruction, which had evidently been placed on the track by some one with the intention of wrecking the passenger train. The engine and three cars passed over the obstruction safely, but the following nine cars were derailed and badly smashed up.

Ten Convicted.

Moscow, Ida., Nov. 6.—The jury returned a verdict of guilty in the case of ten and not guilty in the case of three of the Coeur d'Alene miners who have been on trial here in the United States court on a charge of conspiracy and stopping a mail train at Wallace on April 29 last. Sentence has not been passed.

To Remove Coffee Duty.

Cordova, Mex., Nov. 7.—The principal coffee growers of Mexico have presented a petition to the Mexican government asking that the export duty of 8 cents per pound on coffee be removed. The request will be complied with immediately upon the arrival of Secretary of Finance Limantour from the United States.

Samoa Question Settled.

London, Nov. 6.—Although the exact terms of agreement are still carefully guarded, the Associated Press is able to say the Samoa question is practically settled and finalities will take place within a few days unless some most unexpected hitch occurs.

Cotton Mill at Forsyth.

Forsyth, Ga., Nov. 6.—Capital has been subscribed for a new cotton mill here and the site has been purchased. It will use about 5000 bales of cotton annually. When this mill is completed Forsyth will manufacture 3000 bales of cotton more than is marketed here.

Failed to Rob a Bank.

St. Joseph, Mo., Nov. 6.—Robbers effected an entrance to the building occupied by the Bank of Amity, a small town on the Rock Island road, in De Kalb county, about 25 miles northeast of here, and attempted to blow open the vault. They failed, stole a team and escaped.

HOBART SERIOUS.

His Physician Says There is No Hope of His Recovery.

Paterson, N. J., Nov. 6.—Dr. W. K. Newton, who is attending Vice President Hobart, has consented to talk about his patient.

"He is resting comfortably," said Dr. Newton.

"Do you think Mr. Hobart has a chance to recover?" he was asked.

"I can only compare his case with others of this kind."

"Did the others you refer to ever get better?"

"I am sorry to say they did not," said the physician.

Dr. Newton said he would not give an opinion as to how long the patient might live. He might drop off at any moment and he might go for several days, so remarkable has been his vitality all through his serious illness.

CONFIDENCE IN BULLER.

His Action in Ordering Some Retirement Gives Britons Relief

London, Nov. 6.—The general belief in London is that the Boers are waiting for more guns from Pretoria before attacking Ladysmith. The fact that Sir Redvers Buller appears to have ordered a retirement from Stromberg and perhaps from other places, relieves to some extent the public mind, which, otherwise, would have been further alarmed. Confidence is felt in any measures that General Buller may deem desirable. The knowledge that the pigeon post is working has also come as a relief to the great anxiety previously felt.

The third class cruiser Pelorus has been ordered from Gibraltar to Durban and the third class cruiser Fearless from Port Said to the same point.

Dispatches from Cape Town and other centers in Cape Colony indicate that the Cape Dutch are becoming very restless in consequence of the Boer success.

BURNED TO DEATH.

Mrs. Fagan Loses Her Life Decorating Her Husband's Grave.

Houston, Nov. 6.—A most distressing accident has occurred at Harrisburg. It ended the life of an estimable lady, Mrs. Fagan, widow of the late Thomas Fagan.

Her home was near Harrisburg, and during Sunday she visited the cemetery to place flowers upon the grave of her late husband. She also placed some lighted candles near the flowers, and in moving about to complete the decorations, her dress caught fire from the candles. She was heavily dressed and when her skirts caught fire the flames soon encircled her, and death was doubtless caused from inhaling the flames.

Acts of Negro Miners.

Macon, Mo., Nov. 6.—A posse of negroes got out of the stockade at mine No. 61 Sunday morning and started towards town. On arriving near mine No. 7 they stationed themselves in a railway cut and began firing into houses. David Gamble's residence was riddled with bullets and the family had to lay flat on the floor to escape the fusillade. O. L. Trolard's house was attacked in a similar manner and several others had to evacuate their homes. Sheriff Clem is endeavoring to arrest the guilty parties. Several parties came to Macon in quest of rifles and ammunition.

Law Protects Owls and Hawks.

Mount Vernon, Ills., Nov. 6.—Deputy Game Warden Stephenson, of this city, in the prosecution of violators of the game law, has discovered that owls, hawks (except the chicken hawk) and other carnivorous birds, which have hitherto been considered legitimate game for the sportsman's gun, are afforded the same protection in section 4 of the law that is given song and other harmless birds. No arrests have yet been made, but the law will be strictly enforced.

Express Messenger Better.

Denison, Tex., Nov. 6.—Express Messenger W. S. Concanon who was injured by the express robbers last Tuesday night in the Katy yards in this city is much better. He regained consciousness Sunday morning and recognized his father, brother and sister and other friends who were admitted to his presence. He talked intelligently to his father, and for the first time seemed to be in possession of all his senses.

Jealous Husband's Deed.

St. Louis, Nov. 6.—In a jealous rage Sunday George Barthell, a foreman in the wholesale house of the Simmons Hardware company, fatally shot his wife, beat his wife's father and mother into insensibility and then killed himself. Barthell had been separated from his wife for four years and during that time had made repeated requests that she return to him, but to no avail.

Fatal Runaway.

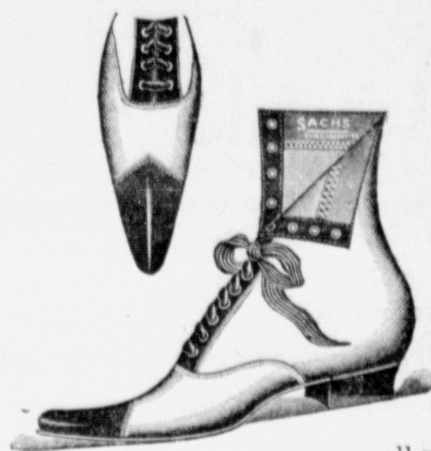

Clarksville, Tex., Nov. 6.—Two sons of E. C. Kidd, a farmer, living about 20 miles southwest of this city, met with a horrible accident. The boys, aged respectively 13 and 10 years, were in a 2-horse wagon, when the team became frightened and ran away. Both boys were thrown out and the elder was instantly killed and the skull of the other fractured, from which death may result.

Getting Troops Ready.

Lexington, Ky., Nov. 6.—Colonel Roger D. Williams, of the second regiment of state guards has wired all companies under his command to ascertain what supplies of ball cartridges they had on hand, and how they were prepared to respond if suddenly called on. It is intimated that the troops may be called to Louisville on election day.

Sunset-Central special.

Is the title of the new train service instituted October 29, jointly by the Houston & Texas Central and the Sunset route, between New Orleans and north Texas points. The service will give an 11 hour schedule between New Orleans and Houston and 20 hours and 55 minutes New Orleans to Dallas, 21 hours and 55 minutes Dallas to New Orleans. Trains will carry through chair cars to New Orleans and Denison and return. This service will operate on trains Nos. 3 and 4 on the H. & T. C. and trains Nos. 5 and 6 on the Sunset route.

A feature of the new schedule is the new Buffet sleeping car line between Galveston, Houston, Dallas and Denison on trains Nos. 3 and 4, and from Denison to St. Louis by the "Katy Flyer." Transfer will be made north and south-bound to sleeper to and from Chicago on "Katy flyer," this sleeper leaving Chicago at 1:30 p. m. and arriving in Chicago at 2:35 p. m. Train No. 3 on H. & T. C., also carries through sleeper from Houston to Denver, via Ft. Worth, and since November 1, has carried sleeper between Houston and Waco via Bremond, the same sleepers southbound being carried on No. 4.

A feature of the Houston-Waco line is that passengers leaving Waco are permitted to enter the cars at 9 p. m. and to occupy berths in cars arriving at Waco until 7 a. m.

A new sleeping car line has also been instituted by the H. & T. C., in conjunction with the M. K. & T., whereby a sleeper will be handled between Austin and Elgin on the Central and between Elgin and Dallas on the "Katy."

The change generally in the service of the "Central" will conduce to the comfort of the patrons of the road and give them every possible service and convenience accorded to travelers.

The Stealing Rose.

The Dewey rose has become very popular in New York. Even though it does not come high—costing almost double that of the fascinating American Beauty—there is scarcely a function or roof garden party where it does not reign supreme. The new rose is dainty and exquisite enough for a bridal bouquet. It suggests the la France rose in shape, but is as delicate in color as the tea rose, the tint deepening in its heart. Its special characteristic is a peculiar waxen effect that would give it a touch of stiffness except for the beautiful curves of its petals.

MAIL OF THE FARMER

Strong Plea for Extension of Rural Free Delivery.

VALUABLE TO ALL

Experiments in Forty States Show the Scheme is a Decided Success.
The Recommendations of Postoffice Department.

Washington, Nov. 6.—A vigorous plea for rural free delivery is made in the annual report of First Assistant Postmaster General Perry S. Heath. Mr.
Heath says the service so far has resulted in increased postal receipts, enhancement of the value of farm lands reached by rural free delivery of from $2 to $3 per acre, a general improvement of the condition of the roads traversed by the rural carriers, better prices for farm products, the producers being brought into daily touch with the markets, besides educational benefits conferred by relieving the monotony of farm life through ready access to wholesome literature and knowledge of current events.

On Nov. 1 rural free delivery was in successful operation over 383 services, radiating over 40 states and 1 territory.
Idaho, Wyoming, Mississippi and Montana being the only state unrepresented.
Between the beginning of the new fiscal year, July 1, 1899, and Nov. 1, at an additional expenditure of $150,000, rural free delivery has been extended to nearly 180,000 persons, at an annual cost of about 84 cents per capita against an average per capita cost of $2.80 in small towns of 5000 population.

"It is a small matter to a resident of a town," says the report, "to be saved a walk of a few hundred yards to the postoffice, while on the contrary it is a great accommodation to the farmer to be spared a drive of five or ten miles over country roads to get his mail. In a recent public discussion advocates of the system who took the value of the time thus lost in the busy farming season at only 50 cents per head, found that their figures ran into many million of dollars lost to the agricultural interests through being obliged to send to the village for the mails. Rural carriers are shortly to be authorized to receive and receipt for letters for registration as city carriers do now."

It recommends the adoption of some uniform style of mail box for the rural free delivery service with two compartments, one for delivery and one for collection, with one master key for the carrier to open the collection compartments of all the boxes and a key for the delivery compartment to be furnished to each patron of the delivery.

These boxes are to be put up and kept in repair by the postoffice department for rental at moderate prices, which would not only pay the government interest on its investment, but yield a revenue. The rural mail boxes would thus have thrown around them the undisputed protection of the United States laws. By illustration it is shown that the rural service at West Chester, Pa., not only paid for itself but left in the nine months of its operation up to Sept. 30, a balance of $593, after delivering 155,805 pieces of mail matter at the doors of the farmers.

The reports of hostility of postmasters and from star route contractors are dismissed as having no substantial grounds and as animated by no desire for the public good.

A modification of the postal laws is recommended to permit star route messengers under special appointment and oath to perform rural free delivery service. Four additional postal wagon routes with auxiliary carriers in the traveling rural postoffices whose experimental operation in Carroll county, Md., has attracted general interest, is recommended.

Another Town Taken.

Manila, Nov. 6.—Two columns of General MacArthur's division Sunday took Malagalag, about six miles north east of Angeles.

Colonel Smith with two battalions of the Seventeenth infantry, two guns of the First artillery and a body of engineers, advanced from Angeles. Major O'Brien with a battalion of the Seventeenth infantry and two troops of the Fourth cavalry, moved from Caluete.

Colonel Smith killed 11 insurgents, wounded 128 and captured 58, as well as taking a lot of insurgent transportation.

Major O'Brien killed 49 insurgents wounded a great many and took some prisoners. He had 11 men wounded.

Fire at Kansas City.

Kansas City, Nov. 6.—Half a million dollars worth of property was destroyed here Sunday morning by fire that started in Jones Bros. big department store on North Main and Sixth streets, and spread to half a block of other buildings on Main and Walnut streets. The insurance is estimated at $375,000. The heaviest losers are Jones Bros., who estimate their loss at $300,000, with insurance of 82 per cent of the loss.

Lodged in Jail.

Bastrop, Tex., Nov. 6.—Sheriff Davis brought and lodged in jail Enoch Moss, the negro charged with the murder of Neil Lane near Little in the early part of July, and who has been confined in the Travis county jail since his capture.
Moss will be tried in the December term of court.

PHILIPPINE CAMPAIGN.

General Otis Has Begun a Warm Chase
After Aguinaldo.

Washington, Nov. 6.—With forces aggregating nearly 44,000 fighting men Generals Lawton, MacArthur and Wheaton are now closing in on Aguinaldo's army. General Otis set Nov. 5 and 6 as the dates for commencing the campaign all along the line and the war department has been informed of the programme to be carried out.

General Otis' dispatches are optimistic in the highest degree and the officials are predicting that the rebellion will be crushed before the end of the present month and that important victories will be announced within a few days.

The military situation has been thus analyzed by an official familiar with General Otis' plan of operation, as reported to the war department. He says:

Aguinaldo, with his army greatly reduced, owing to recent disintegrations, is at Bayamang, 20 miles north of Tarlac, which was headquarters and the objective of Lawton's and MacArthur's enemies up to a fortnight ago.

General MacArthur moves northward along the railroad to Bayamang, taking the towns of Tarlac, Panaque, Moncada and others as he goes along. General Lawton moves northward from Colona-natuan as his base and with columns swerving to the right and left to sweep the country to the Rio Agno river and to head off Aguinaldo's escape to the mountains through Rio Agno valley.
At last accounts detachments from his command had taken Aliaga, west of his base, Talavera being to the north and Bayamang to the northwest.

General Wheaton moves southward from Dagupan to Bayamang. His movements up to this time have been kept from the public, but now that the campaign is in progress he said he is at liberty to mention that he headed an expedition sent on transports for the gulf of Tingayen last week. The navy's task was to shell the towns on the southern part of the gulf, so as to affect the safe landing of the expedition.

Unless Aguinaldo has escaped to the eastward through the Rio Agno valley, he ought to be caught between General Wheaton's forces from the north and General MacArthur's from the south within the next 40 hours, as Bayamang, where he is supposed to be located, is less than 20 miles from Dagupan.

Although General MacArthur's forces were at Angeles at last accounts, it is believed that one of his columns has reached and taken Tarlac before this,
and that the railroad to that point is now in control of the American forces, and it is only a question of a few days and his command will reach Bayamang.
From the campaign mapped out against Aguinaldo his only possible means of escape would seem to be to the eastward through the Rio Agno valley into the mountains, as the forces under Generals Lawton and MacArthur moving northward are keeping scouts well out to the front so as to prevent the enemy from escaping southward.

It seems to have been figured out by the authorities that Aguinaldo would not attempt to cross the mountains to the northeastward because when he got on the other side he would be quite as hostile to the Tagals as the American troops. The northern part of the island of Luzon is cut off from the central by high ranges of mountains. The other side is peopled by mixed races. It is said they are friendly to the United States and bitter against the Tagals.

The war department has not been advised as to the exact number of troops now engaged under Generals Lawton, MacArthur and Wheeler, but is estimated that 44,000 which General Otis reported he had Sunday, at least 20,000 are engaged in the campaign north of Manila. According to recent dispatches from General Otis there has been a general scattering of Aguinaldo's forces, and one report stated that he did not have more than 3000 men with him at Bayamang.

General Otis expressed the opinion that the disintegration of Aguinaldo's men meant that they were getting tired of the war and predicted the surrender of a large number of bands in a short time. Some of the military experts fear General Otis is over sanguine on this point, and that the disintegration may mean the beginning of a prolonged guerrilla warfare.

Judge Reagan Accepts.

Austin, Nov. 6.—Judge John H. Reagan of this city, the only surviving member of the Confederate cabinet, has accepted the invitation extended him in response to an expressed wish of Mrs.
Jefferson Davis, to unveil the monument to the late Jefferson Davis at Richmond, Va., on Nov. 9, at the time the monument to Winnie Davis is unveiled. Judge Reagan will also deliver an address on that occasion.

Chattanooga Disappointed.

Chattanooga, Nov. 6.—Municipal authorities are in receipt of a letter from Secretary of War Root cancelling a recent order to ship to this city one of the guns captured from the Spanish battleships at Santiago. The secretary stated that no more of these guns will be loaned to cities until the government select all it wants for its own purposes. The gun that was to have been shipped here is at New York arsenal.

Transport Arrived.

San Francisco, Nov. 6.—The United States transport Ohio has arrived here from Manila via Guam and Honolulu.
She brings three officers and 49 men of the Nevada cavalry and 215 discharged soldiers.
